Transforming futures through knowledge advancement

About the university:

Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) is India's one of the eminent universities of tertiary education. The university was founded in 1920 following the establishment of the Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental College (MAO College) in 1877 by the great visionary and social reformer, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan.

AMU, spread over 467.6 hectares in Aligarh, Uttar Pradesh, offers more than 300 standard and specialized courses. It draws students from all states of India alongside its global influence, including Africa, West Asia and Southeast Asia. Seats for some courses are reserved for students from SAARC and Commonwealth Countries. The university is open to all, irrespective of caste, creed, religion or gender. It ranks 8th among the top 20 research universities in India.
